

The Kenton County Public Library
Foundation invites you to

A Taste of Kenton County

Enjoy food and drinks from more than two dozen Kenton County restaurants featuring cuisines from around the world. Admission is free but donations are encouraged. All proceeds benefit the Library's literacy outreach programs.

When: Friday, August 6 from 6-8 pm

Where: Mary Ann Mongan Library, 502 Scott Blvd., Covington

Register: (859) 962-4063 or kcpl2009@kentonlibrary.org
Free admission. Donations encouraged. Adults only.

More information available at www.kentonlibrary.org/events.

Live and silent auction items featuring studio time with the Q102 morning show, autographed Anthony Munoz football, first pitch at a Florence Freedom game and much more.

Win a Party With Joel the Singing Librarian!

A party with Joel Caithamer, the Singing Librarian, will be available for auction at the second annual "Taste of Kenton County" fundraising event. The party includes 30 minutes of Joel performing his wonderful songs followed by the reading of two stories to those in attendance. In this party package, the highest winning bidder will also receive two hours of use of one of the Library's meeting rooms so you can host your child's party.

Party date/time subject to room availability.

The winning bidder will be responsible for bringing in his or her own food and drink, cake, games and other party activities. Must be used within one year from time of purchase. Party limited to 40 in attendance. Adult supervision at the party must be provided by the winning bidder or other appointed adult not associated with the Library.

